ARAB AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH

There are books displayed in the library. Announcements will include accomplishments highlighting Arabs and Arab Americans. Teachers will highlight accomplishments within their classrooms.

Students will learn fun facts about Arab Americans and read and discuss the story of Dr. Alixa Naff, who set out to tell the story of Arab immigrants from Syria and Lebanon. <https://americanhistory.si.edu/explore/stories/voices-past-arab-american-oral-histories>

Our Library has a digital display of books on Arab Americans. We will have a physical display next year. We will acknowledge Arab-American heritage weekly in the morning announcements.

In the library, various books about Arab Americans are available for students and teachers to read. CFES 4th graders have added an art and cultural activity as well.

Fashion Design students are working on Mendhi designs in fashion, representing the designs of Kamali, Abboud, Acra, etc.

Morning announcements will include quotes from accomplished Arabs and Arab Americans. Library and classroom instruction: Books will be available in our media center to support Arab American Heritage Month.
