Standards Integration:

Students with Disabilities, English Language Learners, and Gifted and Talented Students:

Differentiating instruction is a flexible process that includes the planning and design of instruction, how that instruction is delivered, and how student progress is measured. Teachers recognize that students can learn in multiple ways. By providing appropriately challenging learning, teachers can maximize success for all students.

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Students with Disabilities:

Refer to students' IEP for specific modifications and accommodations

- Use of visual and multisensory formats
- Use of assisted technology
- Use of prompts
- Modification of content and student products
- Testing accommodations
- Authentic assessments

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Gifted and Talented Students:

- Adjusting the pace of lessons
- Curriculum compacting
- Inquiry-based instruction
- Independent study
- Higher-order thinking skills
- Interest-based content
- Student-driven instruction
- Real-world problems and scenarios

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support English Language Learners:

All WIDA Can Do Descriptors can be found at: <https://wida.wisc.edu/teach/can-do/descriptors>

- Pre-teaching of vocabulary and concepts
- Visual learning, including graphic organizers
- Use of cognates to increase comprehension
- Teacher modeling
- Pairing students with beginning English language skills with students who have more advanced English language skills
- Scaffolding
- Word walls
- Sentence frames
- Think-pair-share
- Cooperative learning groups
- Teacher think-aloud

Interdisciplinary connections are made across grades and content areas to model the integration of knowledge and skills in the real world.

Standards Integration:

Students with Disabilities, English Language Learners, and Gifted and Talented Students:

Differentiating instruction is a flexible process that includes the planning and design of instruction, how that instruction is delivered, and how student progress is measured. Teachers recognize that students can learn in multiple ways. By providing appropriately challenging learning, teachers can maximize success for all students.

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Students with Disabilities:

Refer to students' IEP for specific modifications and accommodations

- Use of visual and multisensory formats
- Use of assisted technology
- Use of prompts
- Modification of content and student products
- Testing accommodations
- Authentic assessments

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Gifted and Talented Students:

- Adjusting the pace of lessons
- Curriculum compacting
- Inquiry-based instruction
- Independent study
- Higher-order thinking skills
- Interest-based content
- Student-driven instruction
- Real-world problems and scenarios

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support English Language Learners:

 All WIDA Can Do Descriptors can be found at: <https://wida.wisc.edu/teach/can-do/descriptors>

- Pre-teaching of vocabulary and concepts

Standards Integration:

Students with Disabilities, English Language Learners, and Gifted and Talented Students:

Differentiating instruction is a flexible process that includes the planning and design of instruction, how that instruction is delivered, and how student progress is measured. Teachers recognize that students can learn in multiple ways. By providing appropriately challenging learning, teachers can maximize success for all students.

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Students with Disabilities:

Refer to students' IEP for specific modifications and accommodations

- Use of visual and multisensory formats
- Use of assisted technology
- Use of prompts
- Modification of content and student products
- Testing accommodations
- Authentic assessments

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Gifted and Talented Students:

- Adjusting the pace of lessons
- Curriculum compacting
- Inquiry-based instruction
- Independent study
- Higher-order thinking skills
- Interest-based content
- Student-driven instruction
- Real-world problems and scenarios

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support English Language Learners:

All WIDA Can Do Descriptors can be found at: <https://wida.wisc.edu/teach/can-do/descriptors>

- Pre-teaching of vocabulary and concepts
- Visual learning, including graphic organizers
- Use of cognates to increase comprehension
- Teacher modeling
- Pairing students with beginning English language skills with students who have more advanced English language skills
- Scaffolding
- Word walls
- Sentence frames
- Think-pair-share
- Cooperative learning groups
- Teacher think-aloud

Interdisciplinary connections are made across grades and content areas to model the integration of knowledge and skills in the real world.

Standards Integration:

Students with Disabilities, English Language Learners, and Gifted and Talented Students:

Differentiating instruction is a flexible process that includes the planning and design of instruction, how that instruction is delivered, and how student progress is measured. Teachers recognize that students can learn in multiple ways. By providing appropriately challenging learning, teachers can maximize success for all students.

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Students with Disabilities:

Refer to students’ IEP for specific modifications and accommodations

- Use of visual and multisensory formats
- Use of assisted technology
- Use of prompts
- Modification of content and student products

- Testing accommodations
- Authentic assessments

Examples of Strategies and Practices that Support Gifted and Talented Students:

- Adjusting the pace of lessons
- Curriculum compacting
- Inquiry-based instruction
- Independent study
- Higher-order thinking skills
- Interest-based content
- Student-driven instruction
- Real-world problems and scenarios
