Where the Lost Socks Go

Michelle Vivona, Diana Zourelias (Illustrator), Michelle Vivona

Sal and Samson are the best of friends. They make quite a pair! But when Samson falls under the dryer, he's wet, scared, and alone. What will he do without his buddy? Determined, Sal sets out on a rescue mission, as Samson learns where the lost socks go and bravely meets other socks who have a similar fate. Will Samson and Sal see each other again? Or will Sal be put in the jar with all the other mateless socks? Where the Lost Socks Go is a book about persistence, kindness, and the unbreakable bond of best friends.

"What a cute story! I love the theme of kindness as the socks work together to reunite their friends. It's a delightful tale of love and friendships." Fran Cain
Author of King Kindness of Kandu "Where the Lost Socks Go is a sweet book about friendship, loss, and working together to help those in need. The author helps us see that as long as you are with those you love, home can be anywhere, even an unexpected place!" Christine Smart Author of The Rings that Sing
