Parents say:

"... it is a very nurturing environment ... someone with no experience and untapped potential would bloom."

"... my daughter positively glowed with happiness after each show."

"(Director Mary Iannelli) challenges each of her kids, and every year they learn and grow as actors. Mary has also created a family atmosphere where the kids all look out for one another and enjoy performing together."

Kids like:

"... Everything! Getting closer with the cast, being able to perform while having fun."

"... being with the amazing people in the program and really bonding with them."
