R 5420 REPORTING STUDENT PROGRESS

A. Purpose

The purpose of reporting the educational progress of students is to:

1. Inform parent(s) or legal guardian(s) of the progress children have made in school;
2. Apprise students of their progress in school;
3. Prompt teachers to make periodic, formal assessments of each student's progress;
4. Provide a cumulative record of a student's progress through the educational system; and
5. Enable each student to gain a positive sense of his/her intellectual, social, emotional, and physical abilities and growth toward effective citizenship.
6. Assist in the selection of appropriate courses, programs, or career paths based on the student's strengths, interests and goals.
7. Facilitate communication and collaboration among teachers, school administrators, and support staff to support the student's educational journey and identify areas where additional help or intervention may be required.
