Dear Jerry:

I was pleased to have the opportunity to talk with you about your needs and the services CCHD provides.

We are a non-profit counseling center which has been in Cranford for over 40 years. We are community focused and have always been a resource for our schools, religious institutions and law enforcement.

We frequently provide assessments for students who need to be evaluated in order to return to the classroom. We also offer training and seminars on a variety of topics. Fees are normally negotiable. Our fee for an initial assessment and corresponding report is $200.

Please feel free to contact me any time.

Sincerely,

Linda Van Fossen, MA, LPC
Executive Director
