UNION HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT ACTIVITIES FUNDRAISER PROPOSAL

Applicant Information

Faculty Member (s): Date: Club Name: Empowerment Mentoring Group: Mr. Michael Mayes

Acct. No: 2223

Acct. Balance to Date: $180

Type of Fund Raiser: 3 on 3 Father / Son (Men's) Basketball Competition (Two-Day Event)

Purpose of Fundraiser: The goal of this event is to encourage male bonding / fellowship and ultimately create fun between fathers and their sons. While we recognize that we may have students that may not have a father...the competition is open for male high school students only (Grades 9-12) and any male role model (i.e. uncle, stepfather, guardian, older brother) that has, and or, can make a difference within the life of a young man. The Empowerment Mentoring Group has tried to instill within its members a sense of self-belonging, self-esteem and self-efficacy throughout the years. It is our hope that this competition will foster the same.

Start Date of Project: Completion Date of Project: Date of Sale(s): From To: *Saturday, December 18, 2021 and Sunday December 19, 2021

Sale Area/Location: Livingston Elementary School (If granted permission) and or any other school gymnasium. In addition, Union Recreational Facilities (If granted permission). (We recognize that the high school gym may not be available due to games or ongoing construction).

Plan: The competition will be held over a two day period (Saturday & Sunday) beginning early Saturday morning (8am) and ending at 5pm. Trophy awards will be presented to the teams who finish first, second and third. The games will be officiated by referees throughout the tournament.

Fundraising: In order to accumulate funds for this event, possible charity donations and the longevity of this club we intend to.

- Promote the event to the community at large via Cable (local Access) and, in addition, via social media (Instagram and School Announcements)
- Charge a registration fee of $30 for each team that will enter the competition.
- Charge and admission fee of $3 per person for anyone who wishes to watch the tournament.
- Sell soda, chips and store purchased baked goods.
