Welcome to The Jordan Toma Experience!

Jordan will share his story.

Who is Jordan Toma?

- Jordan Toma is Just a Kid With an IEP*
- with over 4.1 million followers on social media
 - over 300 million views worldwide
 - and book sales exceeding 150,000 copies

Jordan Toma is a top motivational speaker in the country because he teaches by example, his example.

Diagnosed with ADHD, dyslexia and dysgraphia, a reading comprehension learning disability, Jordan struggled throughout school, missing countless days of school and never passing a test on his own.

Despite those difficulties, Jordan turned things around during a “Step Ahead” (pre-college) program and graduated from Centenary University with a 3.3 GPA and a degree in psychology. Three years later, Jordan spoke with students in the same pre-college program he attended after 12th grade.

Today, Jordan is a (36 year old) successful business man, a top insurance agent, and an investment advisor with a multi-million dollar real estate portfolio who speaks in schools and at corporate events all over the country. Audiences often approach Jordan after he speaks, sometimes crying because they feel seen and understood!

Jordan Toma makes a huge IMPACT at schools and corporate events reaching over 50,000 people in 2024 - not to mention the thousands daily who respond to his social media posts!

Jordan offers a professional development keynote to help INCREASE MORALE with EXCITEMENT and MOTIVATION.

Jordan's overall keynote theme: My Struggle Is My Strength - where Jordan explains how to find strength through struggles and also how important it is for educators/staff/parents to help students (and adults) BELIEVE in themselves!

Jordan is a dynamic speaker who motivates and inspires audiences of educators and leaders to take back messages of HOPE, ways to EMPOWER and UNDERSTAND students with learning difficulties. Jordan speaks on navigating challenges with EMPATHY and COMPASSION.

Jordan has been featured on The Today Show, Good Day New York and CBS News (visit: <https://www.jordantoma.com/press> for links)
